OUR DEDICATED TEAM

Nearly 200 people work for the Bridge Family Center*. Youth workers, nurses, mentors, therapists, parent educators, program directors, and many more are on the front lines of our work every day. “A good head and a good heart are always a formidable combination.”
NELSON MANDELA

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about the Bridge.
Many have come before us and many will come after us to carry on the Bridge’s deep commitment to the people we serve. One of our founders, George C. Hastings, passed away this year. George was the voice for people who did not have one and was a grassroots believer in people. He was a man of courage and vision. Our mission to foster the courage and strength in children and families to meet life’s challenges and build fulfilling lives is rooted in the history of the Bridge and people like George who inspire our work.

The Bridge continues to grow and respond to the needs of the communities we serve. Over the years, we have expanded our mental health services to include three clinics, with plans to add more eventually. We have added adult mental health counseling to our array of services, and our Family Resource Center now includes before- and after-school care to support working parents. And through two federal grants, we now provide emergency shelter, counseling, life skills instruction and housing support to youth not involved in the state system of care.

A source of pride for us is that the Bridge, once again, received a resounding endorsement of our work from the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving. After a rigorous process that included reviews of our governance, fiscal, and program health, the Bridge was awarded a three-year, $300,000 ($100,000 per year) operating support grant, our second such grant from the Hartford Foundation.

On behalf of all those coming to the Bridge needing a safe haven, a listening ear, support and care, THANK YOU for keeping the Bridge strong. We continue to count on your generosity so that we can always say we are here to stay.

Margaret A. Hanin, Executive Director

Mary K. Butler, Board President
We work every day to help children, adults, and families thrive.

Here’s a Snapshot of How:

WE EDUCATE young children and caregivers

WE MENTOR adolescents

WE COUNSEL children and families

WE PREVENT substance abuse

WE SHELTER at-risk teens

WE TEACH independent life skills
From partnering with West Hartford Adult Education to support the needs of Syrian refugee families, to one-on-one parent support, our Family Resource Center (FRC) works hard to help families thrive.

Our FRC has always had a far reach in the community, but when the Town of West Hartford and the West Hartford Public Schools granted it a prime space in the newly constructed Charter Oak International Academy, our ability to serve the community grew exponentially.

“For 26 years, we operated out of the available space in the basement level of the old school, and that was fine,” remembers Deborah Zipkin, Director of the Family Resource Center, “but this space is beyond our wildest dreams. It’s bright, has a community room for our parenting classes, storage space, and even its own entrance and adjoining playground. Families can see us and have easy access. It has allowed us to serve more children and families, and we are grateful.”

For those who don’t know, a Family Resource Center receives state funds to serve key areas (see panel to the left). How they do that work in each Center varies.

Our donors and private funders should know that it’s their additional support that allows our work to expand beyond the basics and dig deep to serve. Without those additional funds, we simply couldn’t work as broadly.

Bridge Leadership Circle Continues to Grow

As a group of our most distinguished donors, Bridge Leadership Circle members are committed to ensuring a bright future for children and families in our community by pledging $1,000 or more annually for three years. Ten generous donors have joined the Circle this year, bringing the group’s total membership to 56. Their outstanding commitment is helping to build a solid foundation the Bridge can count on for its critical work.

Leadership Circle members receive invitations to special events, program tours with executive director Margaret Hann, insider information updates, and recognition in our annual report.
